2. (S) [REDACTED]

3. (S) [REDACTED]

4. (U) Decisions by DoD Components concerning the disclosure or denial of classified U.S. intelligence to officials of foreign governments and international organizations shall be recorded in the Foreign Disclosure and Technical Information System (FORDTIS) in accordance with DoD Instruction 5230.18 (reference (c)). Disclosures involving sensitive compartmented information that cannot be sanitized appropriately may be excluded from this requirement provided a permanent, retrievable record is maintained pursuant to paragraph B.2.b. of the attachment to reference (a) (enclosure 1).

E. RESPONSIBILITIES

1. (U) The Secretaries of the Military Departments, the Director, National Security Agency/Chief, Central Security Service, and the Director, Defense Intelligence Agency:

a. (U) Shall decide, in compliance with sections C. and D., above, whether to disclose or deny classified U.S. intelligence to officials of foreign governments and international organizations.

b. (U) May redelegate their authority, in writing, as required for efficient operation of organizational elements under their direction, authority, or control.

2. (U) The Director, Defense Intelligence Agency, shall:

a. (U) Upon receipt of adequate justification, and in coordination with the DUSD(P), delegate disclosure authority, in writing, to the Commanders of Unified and Specified Commands, the OSD principal staff assistants, and the heads of DoD Components not listed in subsection E.1., above.

b. (U) Recommend to the DUSD(P) for approval uniform DoD procedures for the coordination of proposed disclosures of classified U.S. intelligence to senior foreign officials.

c. (U) Coordinate within and for the Department of Defense, proposed disclosures of classified U.S. intelligence to senior foreign officials under the procedures in section D. of the attachment to reference (a) (enclosure 1).

d. (U)

3. (U) The Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Policy, or designee, shall:

a. (U) Be responsible for the oversight and effective implementation of this Directive within the Department of Defense.

b. (U) Resolve conflicts among DoD Components relating to disclosures of classified U.S. intelligence to senior foreign officials.

4. (U) Heads of DoD Components shall:

a. (U) Designate a point of contact who shall be responsible for coordinating proposed intelligence disclosures to senior foreign officials and furnish to the Chief, Foreign Disclosure Branch (DI-4B), Foreign Liaison Division, Directorate of Intelligence and External Affairs, DIA, the identification of such points of contact.

b. (U) Ensure that the Chief, DI-4B, DIA, is notified at least 5 working days in advance of proposed disclosures to senior foreign officials. Such notification shall include as much of the essential information specified in section D. of the attachment to reference (a) (enclosure 1) as is available.
